XS-180Y single head hydraulic chamfering machine

Performance characteristics:

1. This machine can complete chamfering and trimming the inner and outer corners of round pipes and round bars at one time, fast and accurate.

2. In order to ensure that the center line of the processing object and the cutter head is accurate and unchanged, the clamping die and the cutter head are precisely designed to complete the processing object evenly at one time.

3. The cutter head is specially designed, the blade is standardized, and the adjustment of the cutter is easy and fast.

4. Manual feeding, automatic clamping, positioning retreat, automatic forward and retreat knife, fast speed, increase output.

5. The semi-automatic mechanical type has two stages of speed: the first stage is rapid to save working time, and the second stage can adjust the cutting and chamfering speed to complete the smooth finished surface.

6. To replace different sizes of workpieces, you only need to adjust the cutter head and replace the clamping die.

7. Applicable materials: steel pipe, iron pipe, aluminum pipe, copper pipe, stainless steel, bar material, PVC pipe, round rod and nylon pipe
